

Unity Group of North Brunswick
“A Non-Profit, Non Political Organization”
P. O. Box 249
Leland, NC 28451

The Unity Group of North Brunswick is now in the process of planning the 2011 North Carolina Christmas Festival. This will be the 20th year of this festival. We have grown steadily each year and it will prove to be bigger than last year’s parade and festival. (Parade and Festival December 10, 2011)

The Unity Group of North Brunswick depends on the local businesses for support. If it wasn’t for you the festival and parade cannot happen.

You can help by buying an ad in our parade program book. The ads are $25, $50, $100 and $250. We offer the program book free to the public the day of the festival. The program booklet will be given to all the businesses that purchase an ad.

The Unity Group is non-profit and welcomes any donations and/or volunteers. Your donation goes toward helping us with our activities throughout the year towards the cost of the NC Festival. We are very proud of the fact that we provide all our children’s activities free. We give all the children that attend a goody bag, free face painting and other activities. We have lots of activities for our children and plenty of clean fun and entertainment for the whole family. The support from your business makes it all possible! Following is a list of options of the ad sizes you can purchase. Please check the type of ad you wish to include. Due to the time period of taking this to press we will need to have your ad no later than November 1, 2011
